) unless claimed otherwise

There is no one on the driver's seat

The community is an organic mash up of small consulting shops having beer with public sector IT departments

Living and kicking

- ★ Plone Foundation, non-profit rights holder
- ★ 240 active or emeritus Foundation members
- ★ 50+ sponsors
- ★ 400 guests in conference

Everybody loves
Plone ❤

(except developers)

(ノಠ益ಠ)ノ彔

Plone is famous for

- ★ Python programming language
- ★ Security
- ★ Flexibility
- ★ Not being famous

Byproducts of community

- ★ 274 installed packages
- ★ 255 MB installed source code
- ★ 228 + 890 Github repos

Plone has only 1 feature

- ★ There is no thing it cannot do
- ★ Most advanced plugin system ever written in any programming language
- ★ Most advanced permission, role and sharing system which bends so you don't have to

Riding the beast

- ★ Self-organizing community teams
- ★ High degree of automatization and continuous integration
- ★ Enhancement proposals “PLIPs”

Battle-scarred community

- ★ Old enough to look into a mirror and admit the mistakes of the past
- ★ Most friendly community
- ★ No question goes unanswered ... but you might regret asking

“We were young.
We needed the money.”

Plone community attracts most intelligent and interesting people...

...and happens everywhere

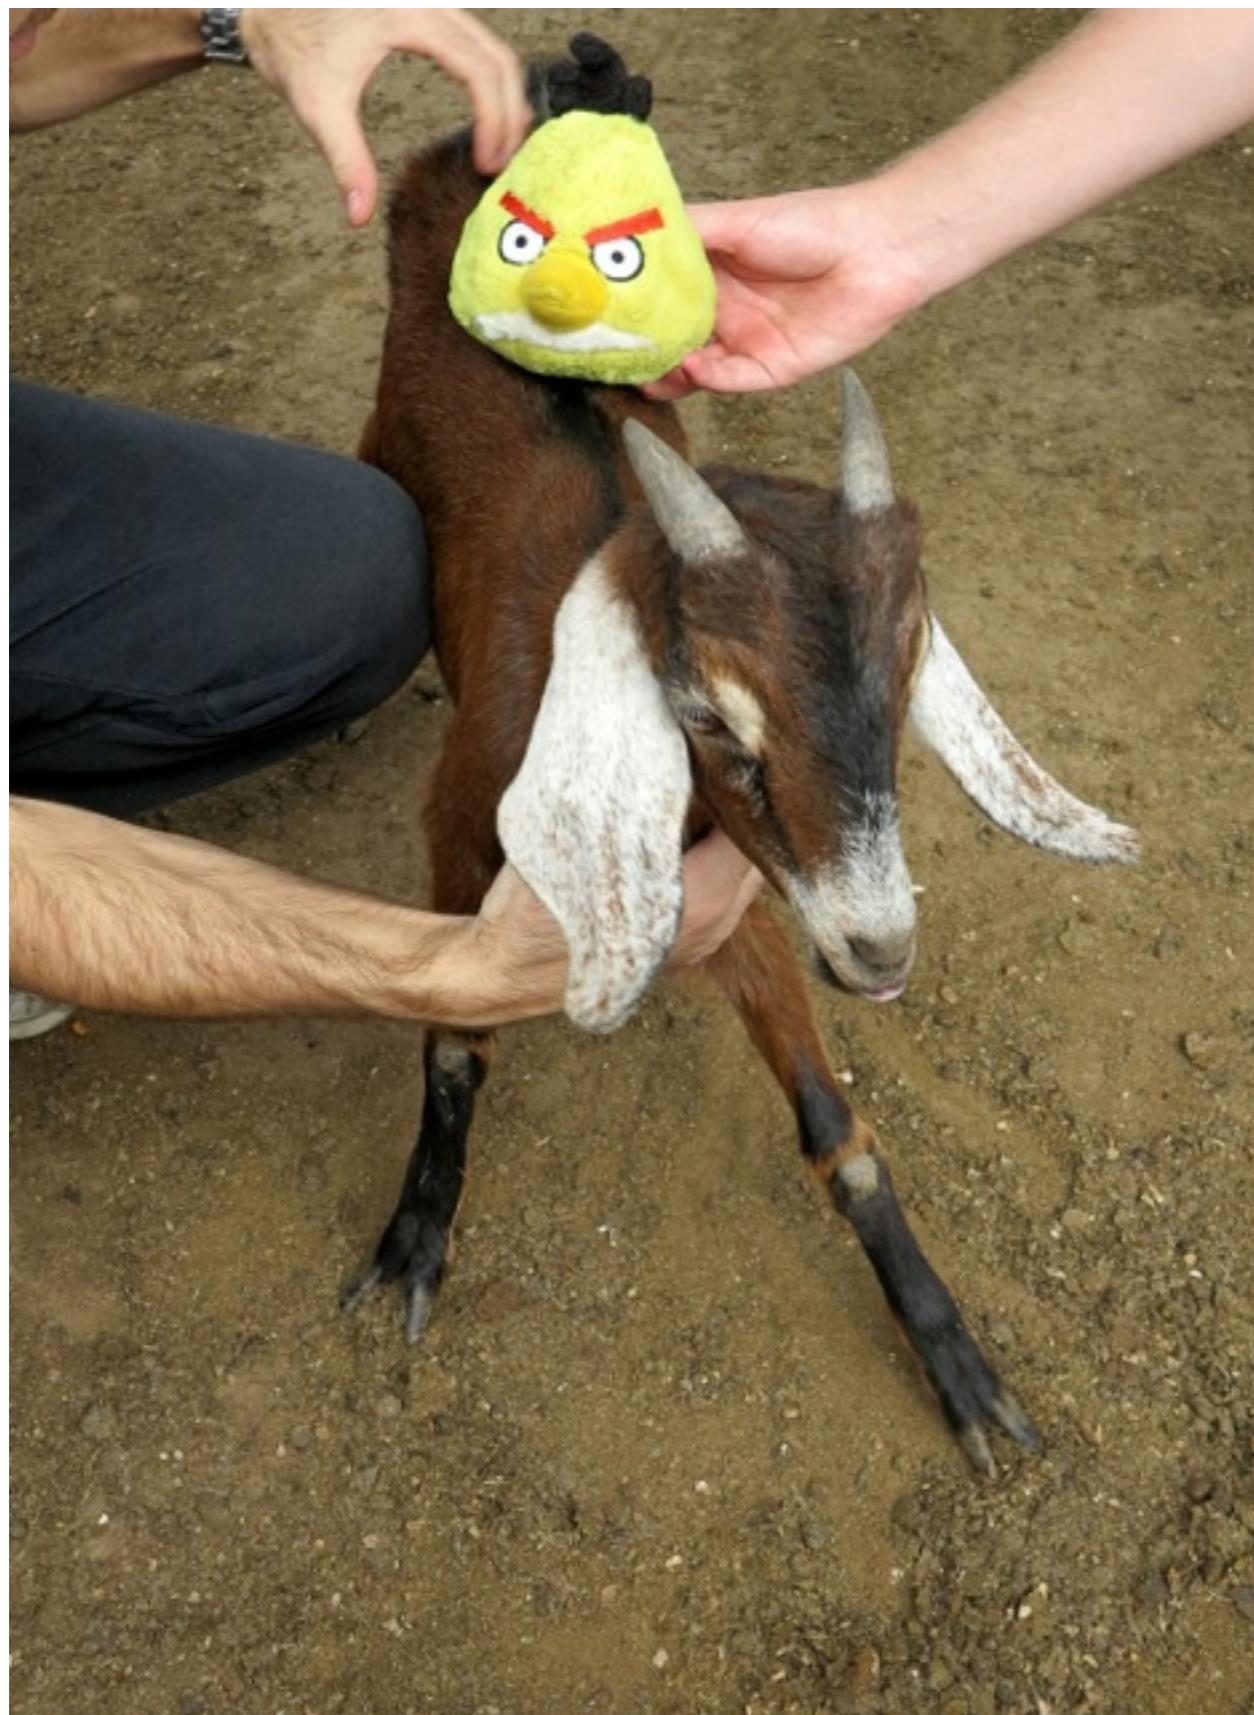

- ★ World conference
- ★ ~10 virtual Tune Ups
- ★ 2-4 continental symposiums
- ★ I World Plone Day
- ★ ~10 sprints

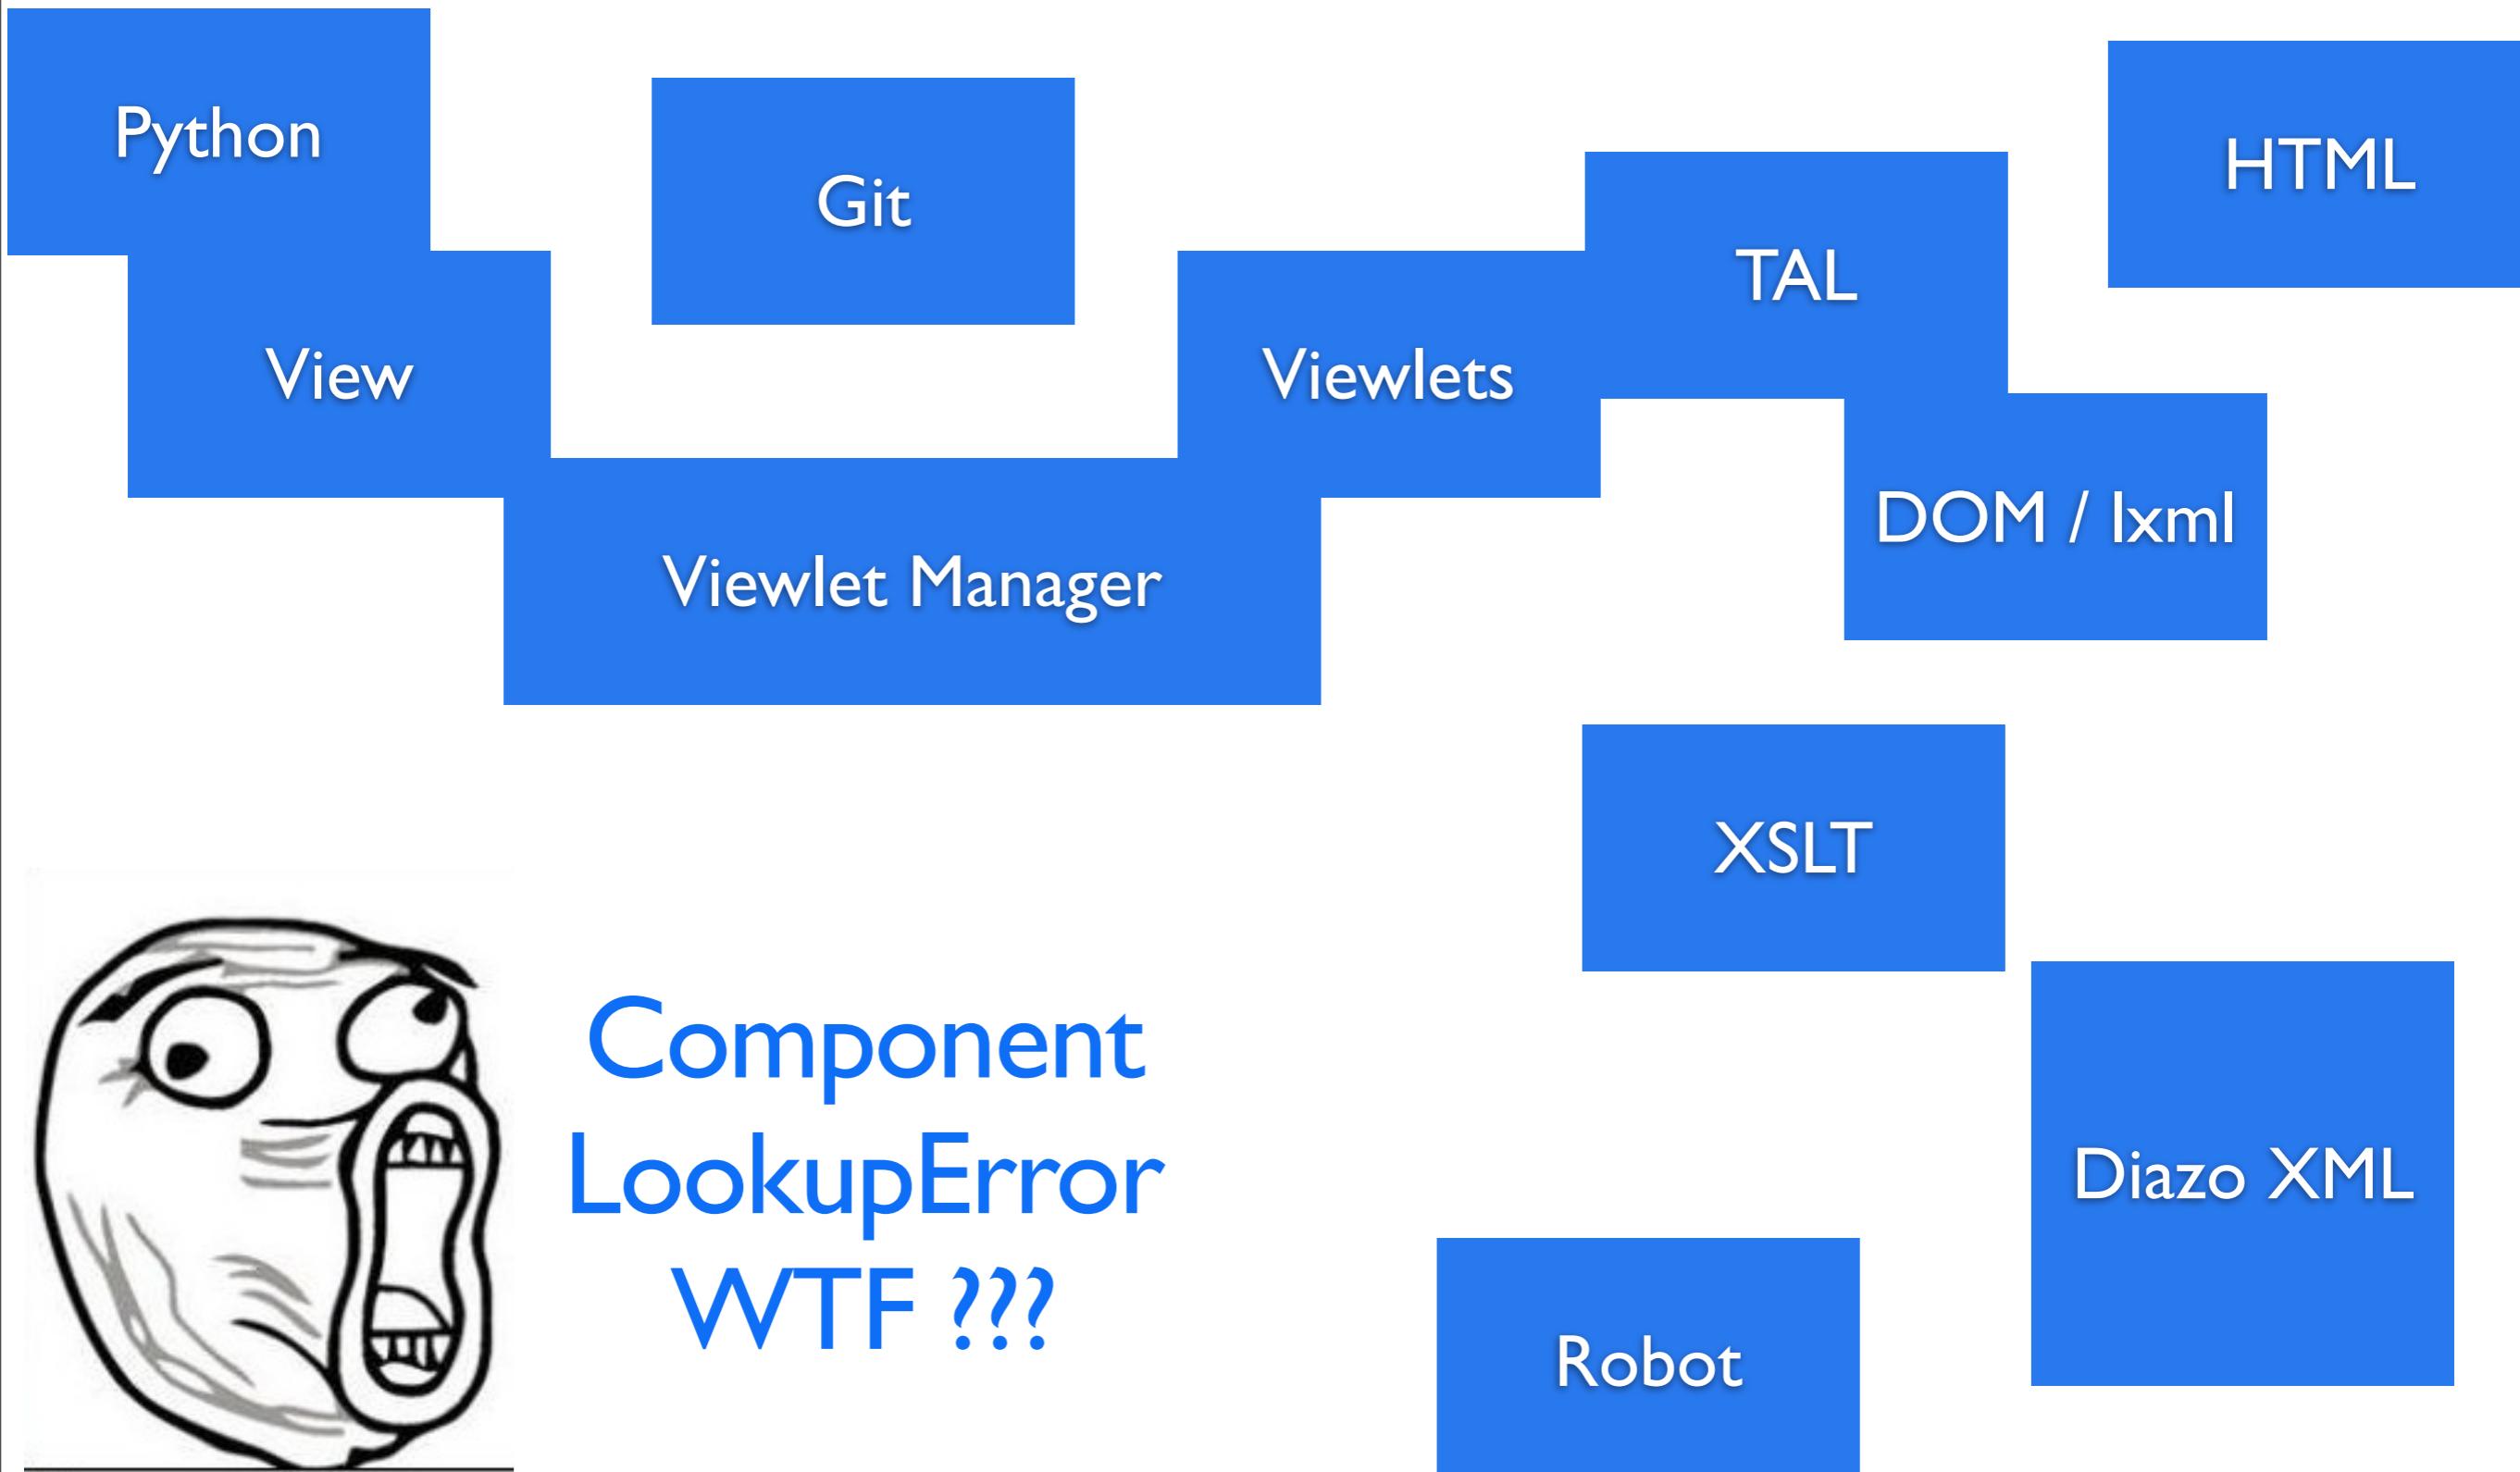

Plone®

Unparalleled opportunity for international co-operation

Not always so easy

Too much

WTF ???

Plone rocks

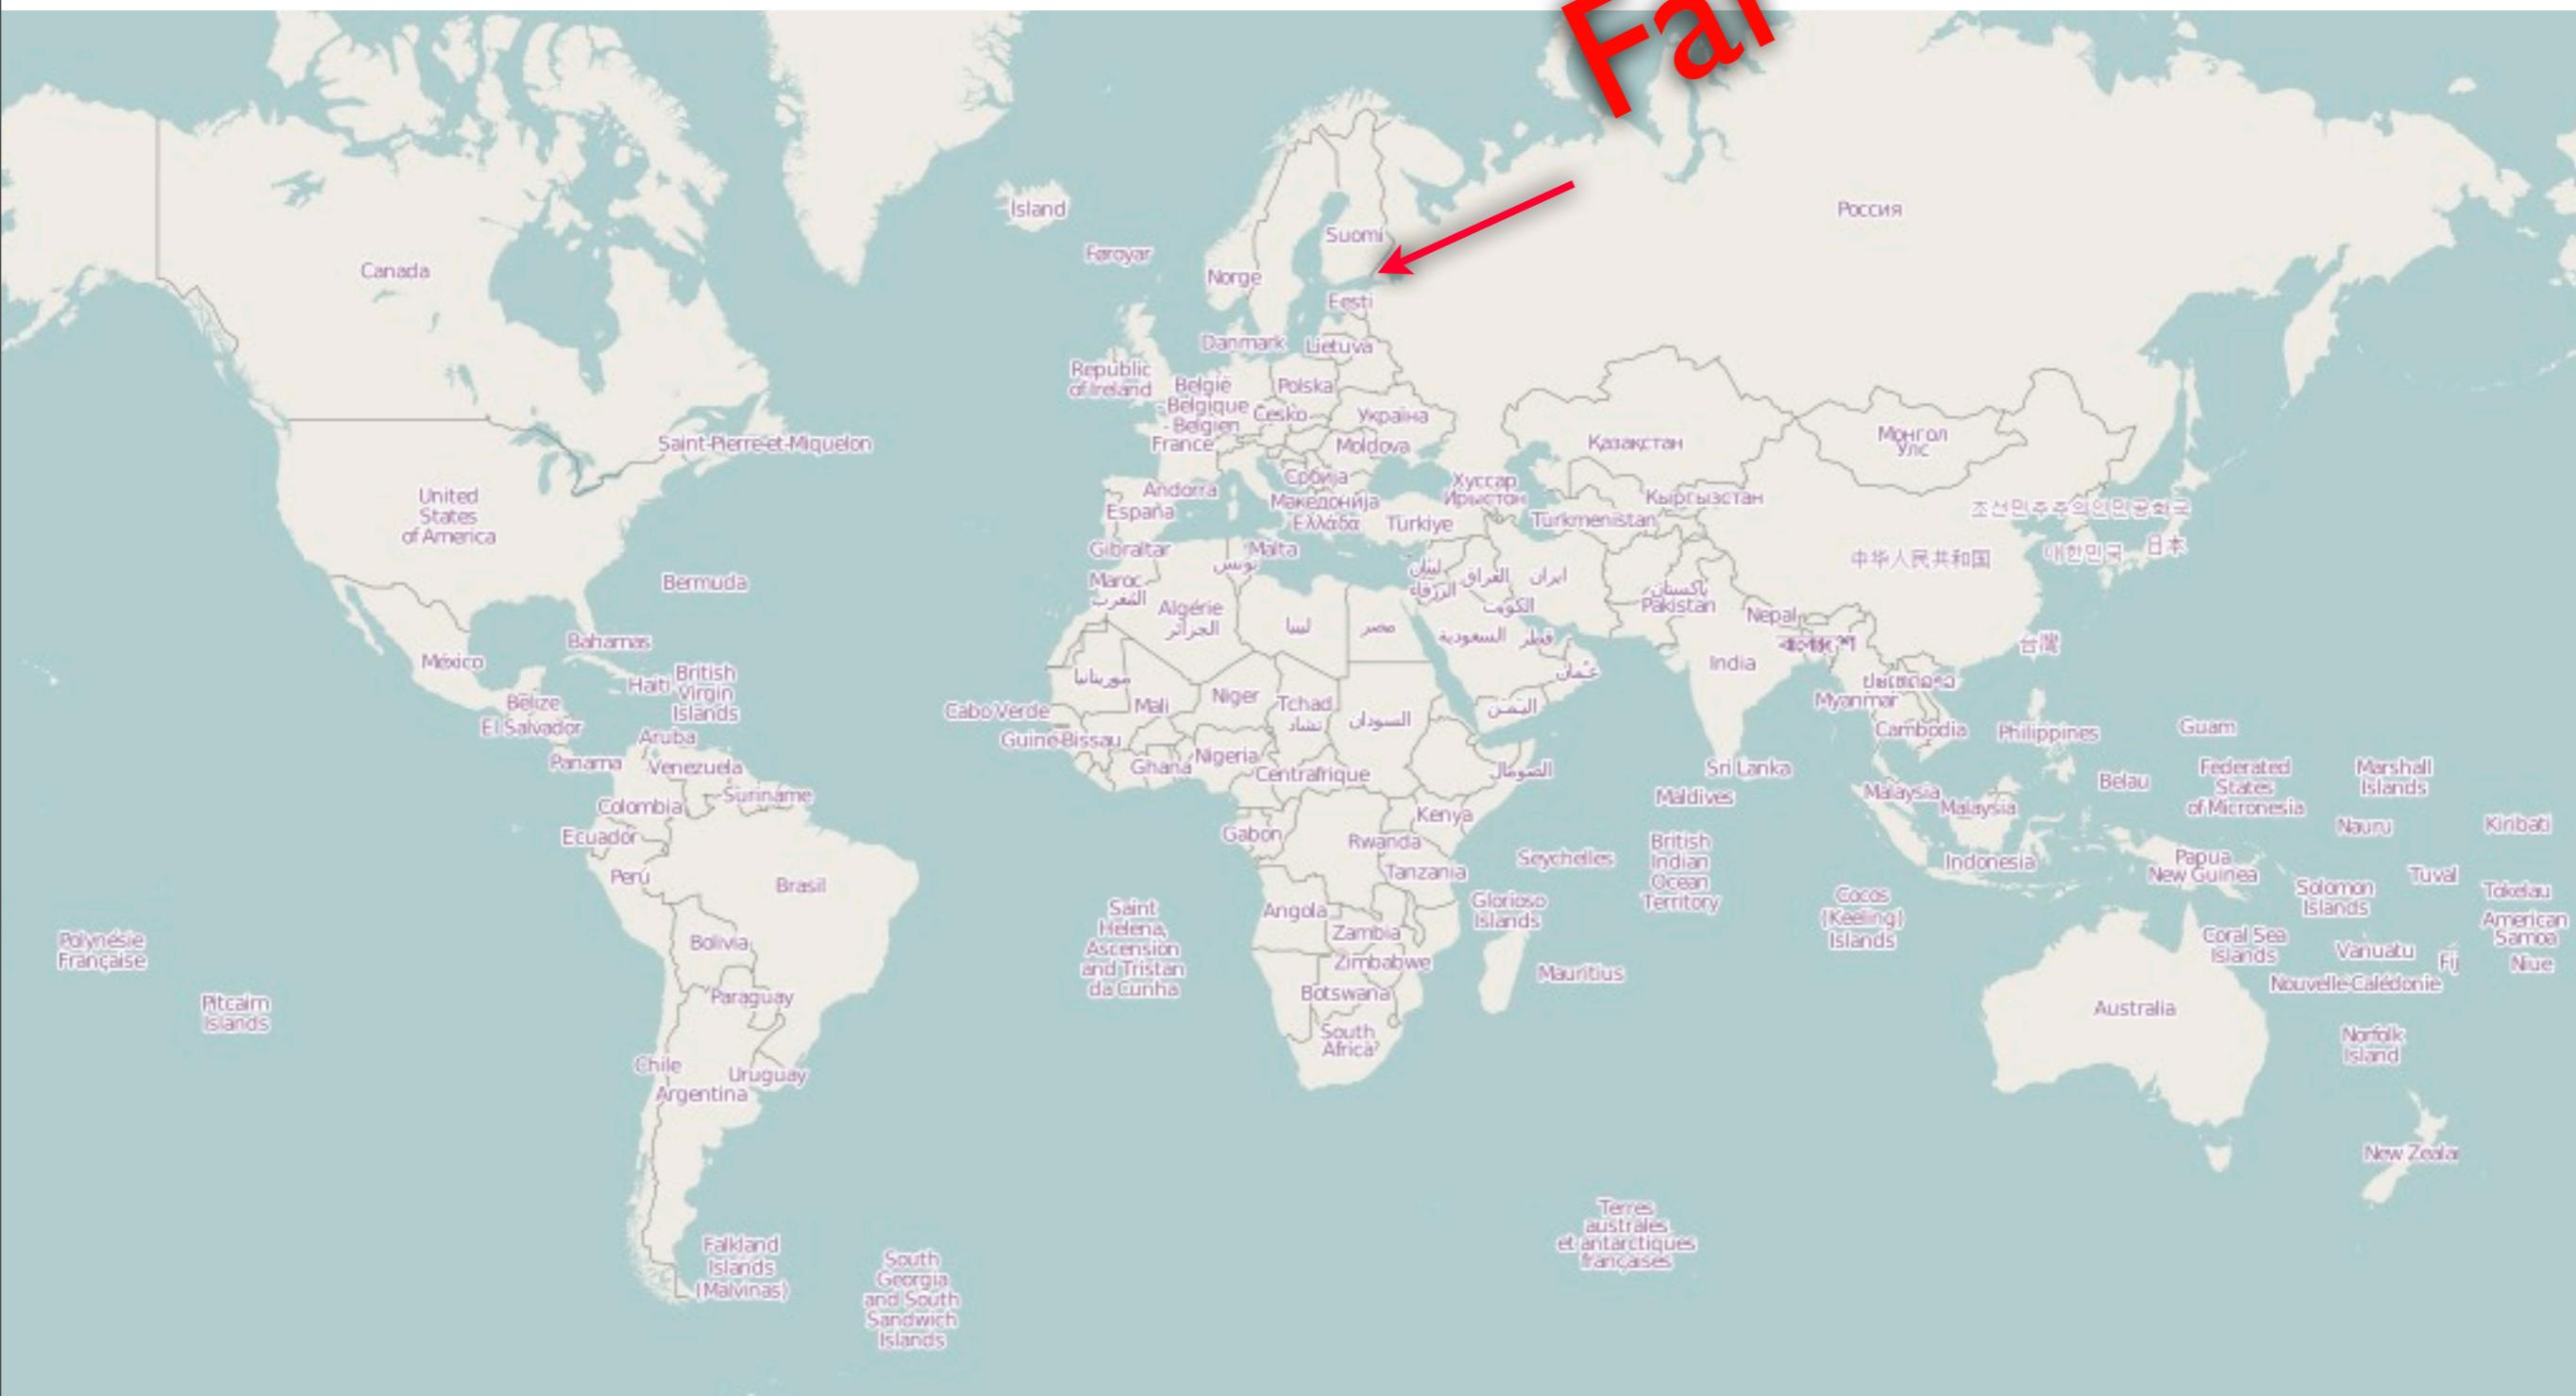

... like Finland in Eurovision

Not a part-time hobby to get to Plone you must go and meet people in strange places

Far

Even with...

- ★ Ugliest legacy codebase
- ★ Not having smart enough living person to fix your bug
- ★ No one caring about us

...still...

Plone is the best CMS for medium-large scale organizations with 15+ editors, several subsites and complex workflow needs

Plone rocks like no other community on this planet
